COUNCIL

MONDE

Whereas there hath been a Notorious and unnatural Rebellion lately raised in Scotland, by several Traiterous and disloyal persons, who in great numbers take up Arms against his Majesty, and gave Battel to his Majesties Forces there, which by the Success that it hath pleased God to give to his Majesties Army there, is now suppressed, and many of the said Rebels killed and taken, and the rest dispersed; And whereas many of the persons who were guilty of the said Rebellion, may, to avoid the punishment which they deserve, endeavour to fly into this Kingdom, and conceal themselves here, We have thought fit hereby to require all Justices, Sheriffs, Justices of Peace, and other his Majesties Officers and Ministers both Civil and Military, that they do diligently search after all such persons, as lately have come, or hereafter shall come out of Scotland into this Kingdom, and to seize and secure all such persons as shall not give a sufficient Account of their Loyalty, and that they shall send full and true report to have been concerned in

OF THE

There have been a number of unsuccessful attempts lately made in the County of Devon to introduce the sale of spirits by retail shops, and it is the duty of the Council to consider the best means of preventing such an increase of the public house trade, and the consequent increase of the consumption of spirits.

It is the duty of the Council to consider the best means of preventing such an increase of the public house trade, and the consequent increase of the consumption of spirits. The Council have therefore resolved to recommend the Magistrates to issue orders for the closure of all public houses, and to prevent the sale of spirits by retail shops, and to take such other steps as may be necessary for the purpose of preventing such an increase of the public house trade.

the said Rebellion, and all his Majesties other Loving Subjects in the several Sea-Port Towns, and other places of this Kingdom, are hereby also required to make strict and diligent search after such persons, and to bring them before one of his Majesties Justices of Peace, in such County where they shall be seized on, and the said Justices of Peace are from time to time to give His an account of what persons shall be so brought before them, and secured by them; And We do hereby also strictly Charge and Command all his Majesties Subjects in this Kingdom, that they do forbear either Harboring or Relieving any of the said Rebels for coming out of Scotland, And that they forthwith make Discovery of such of them, as they shall at any time know to be residing in this Kingdom unto any of his Majesties Justices of the Peace, under pain of their utmost perils, and of being looked upon as persons guilty of the same Traiterous Designs with them.
